

The Story of Nelson

By. Alex Marking

This is Nelson.

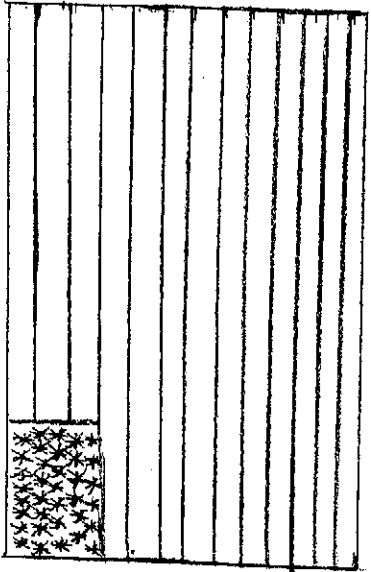

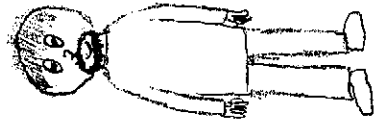

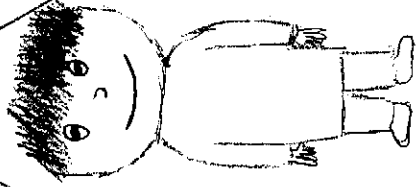

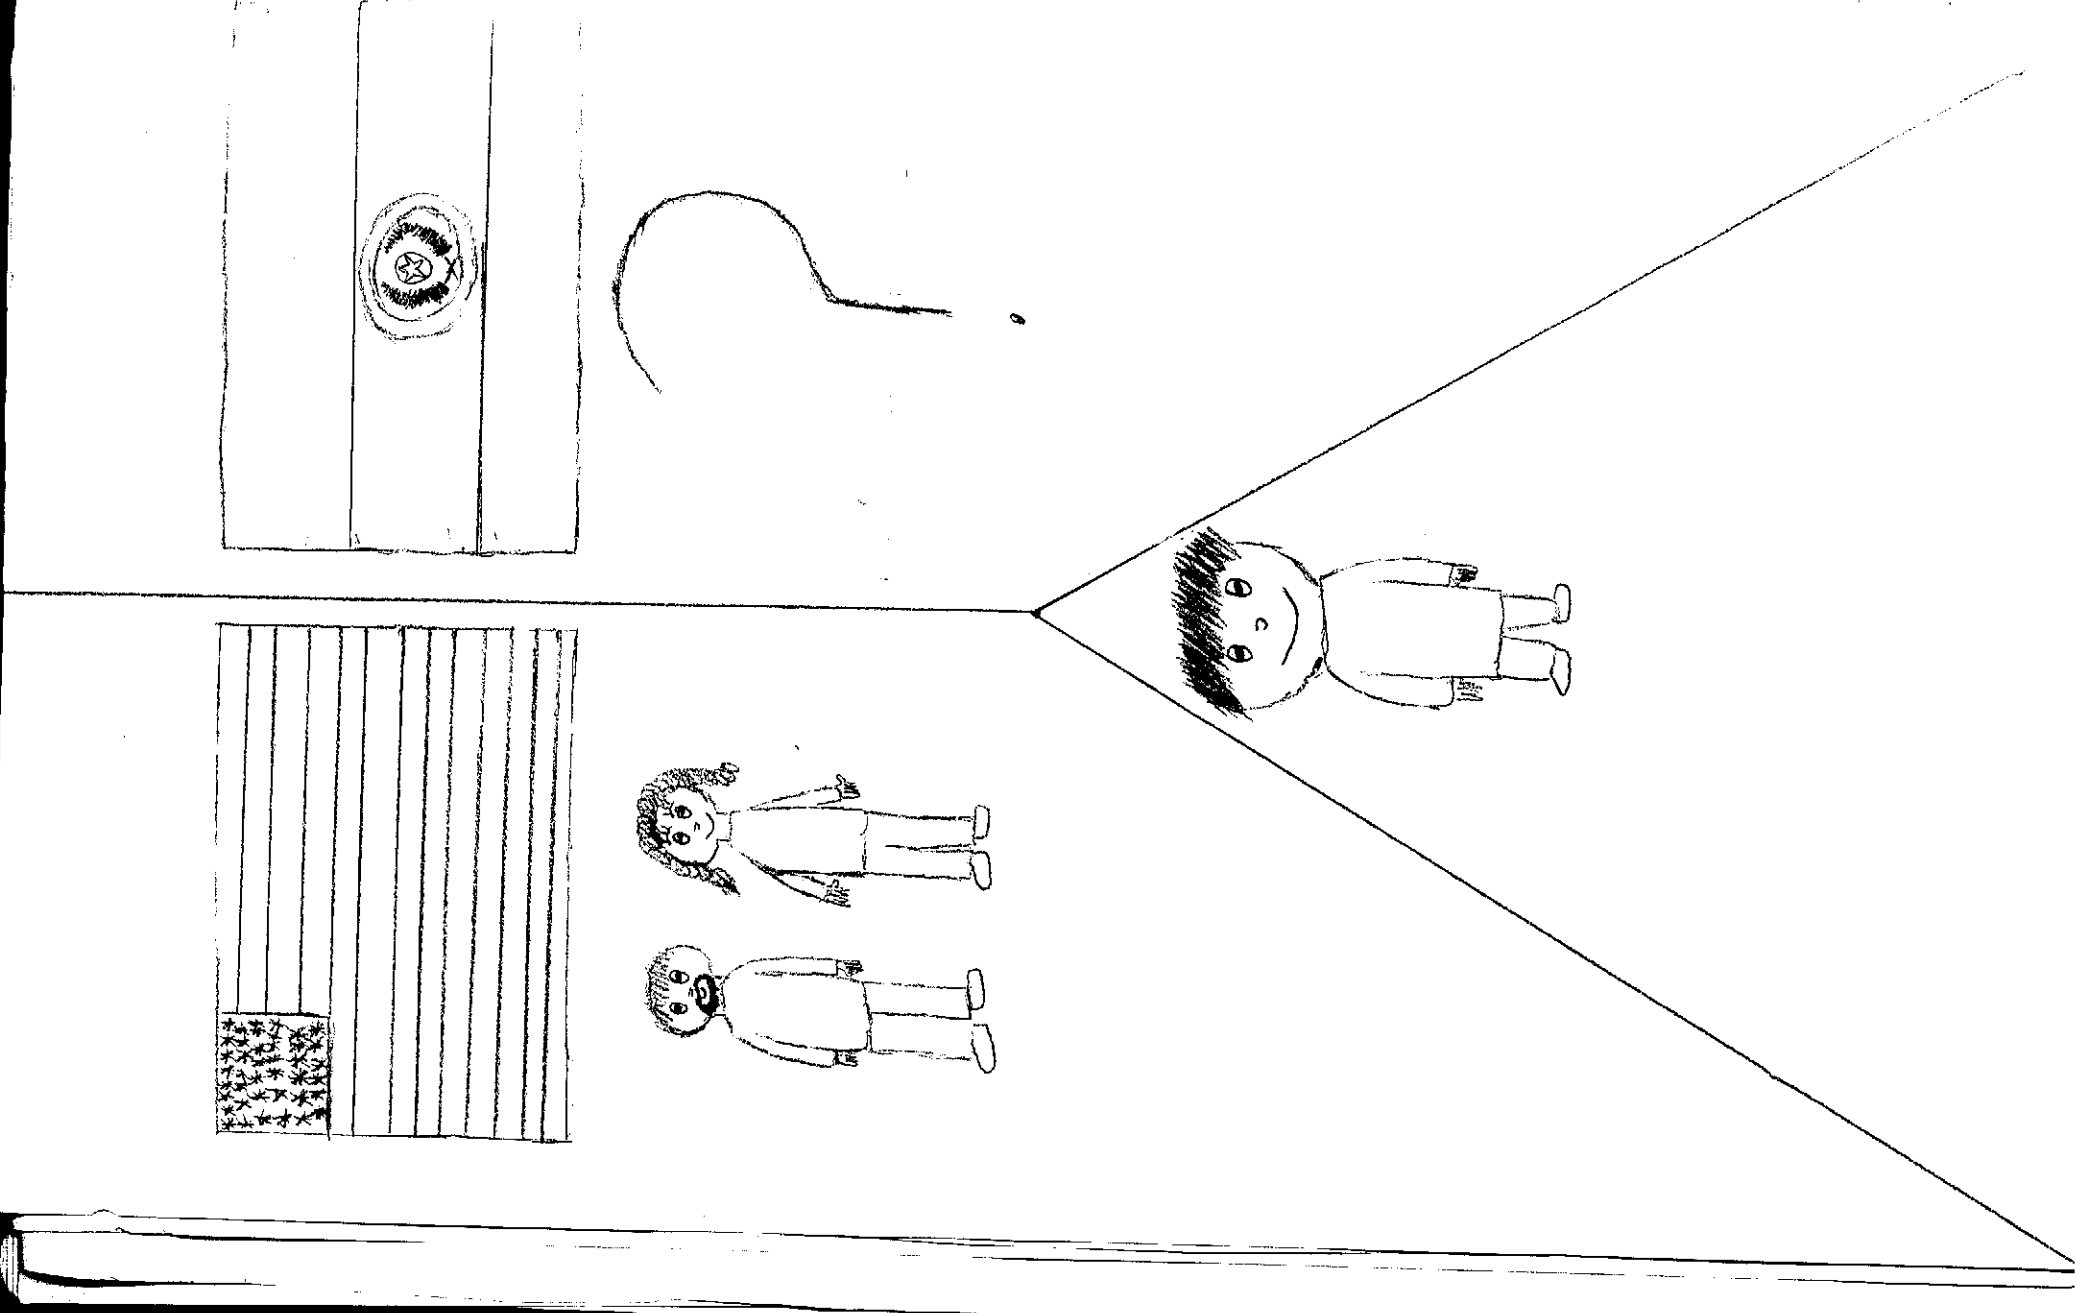

Nelson lives in America
with his family.

But this is only half of Nelson's story...

Nelson is adopted.

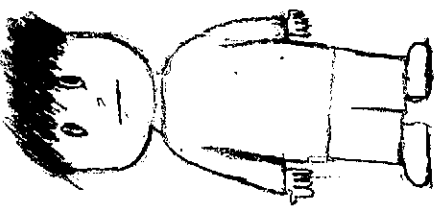

He is from Paraguay.

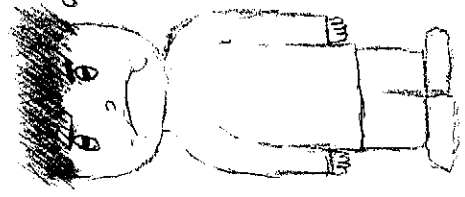

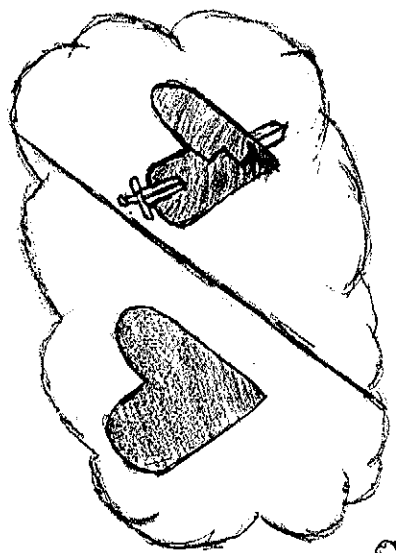

He never knew his biological family

Nelson was confused as to why he was given up.

Nelson always felt like he stood out and knew he was different from his friends.

At first, he was mad at his birth mother and unsure how to feel towards his adopted family.

But then he realized the strength and love it must have taken for his birth mother to give up her child.

He understood the love and compassion it would take to take in someone else's child to raise as your own.

For the first time, Nelson was truly grateful.

I am Nelson ...

Alexander Nelson Marking...

I am proud of who I am...
